2020 National President Linward Hedgpeth

We Will Get Through This Together

What a delightful start for the Ruritan National Organization for the year of 2020. It began 16 weeks ago with an exciting Ruritan National Convention in Kingsport, TN. This was followed in February with a club eighth-year and two seventh-year anniversary celebrations, a growth award presentation, and a first-year National Directors training class.

In March we held our first Ruritan National Board of Directors Meeting, a Nash County District Convention, and a fantastic Tennessee Spring Rally. Unfortunately, that was the last Ruritan public event attended before the Coronavirus began to move into the US. In early April, our federal government gave an official stay-at-home order.

Your Ruritan Executive Committee met via Microsoft Teams and unanimously agreed to comply with the federal and state government guidelines. We recommended all Ruritan events and public gatherings be postponed until further notice. As we move forward guidance may change, and we will keep you informed. Decisions will be made based on the best information available. We will be guided by the facts, not fear.

Alternative plans are being developed and evaluated for implementation by your Executive and Leadership Committees to facilitate training without risking exposure to participants. The Executive Committee continues to meet regularly to monitor the situation regarding the pandemic. As a result of the current Governmental Guidelines and the risk to our members and patrons, Ruritans have unfortunately had to take action to cancel or postpone some of Ruritans major annual calendar events.

LEADERSHIP: Good leadership is necessary to enhance a good growth and development program. Our 2020 goals to strengthen our leadership involves working with our Nominating Committee Chair to help develop a Candidate Leadership Plan and a Process - To identify and encourage club and district leaders to want to become candidates for a national leadership position in 2021 and in the future. We believe having a full slate of officers at the start of the convention will strengthen our national leadership by giving delegates more choices from which to choose. We increased the nominating committee from three to five members for an opportunity to reach more potential candidates and started recruiting earlier in the year. This should help get more candidates prior to the convention and help promote competition. Competition appears to strengthen the interest and quality of candidates for leadership. "A Four Corners Plan" design will assign each committee member a geographical area to contact the district governors in the North, East, West, and South. Nominating Committee meetings are being held monthly.

RESTRUCTURE COMMITTEE: This committee, appointed in March, will first look at the current makeup of the organization. Their primary focus will be on the needs of the organization. They are tasked with, not only restructuring, but on how we may enhance leadership and develop an organizational growth plan. The committee consists of eight members from different experiences in Ruritan, two senior advisers, and two staff personnel.

Coronavirus Effects on Ruritan National Events

It is unfortunate that many Ruritan clubs have had to cancel their meetings or postpone their events, fundraisers, rallies, and special anniversary celebrations because of the pandemic. We are hopeful life will be back to something more normal soon.

During this time when we are asked to “stay-at-home,” I encourage our members whenever possible to reach out to each other, the elderly, and those in our communities that may be isolated or in need. This should be done by making phone calls, using teleconference, text, or email, - just not personal visits.

Ruritans are Resilient!

Who better than Ruritans understand how to approach a crisis and have a determination to make a difference? Our mission is to make our communities a better place to live and work. I have received reports of club members providing service to their communities such as:

- Making mask for medical workers on the frontlines.
- Delivering pizzas to a local Fire Department.
- Sending home-cooked meals to local police/first responders.
- Donating to food service organizations to feed the hungry, just to name a few.

Note: When servicing your communities, please always give priority to following the Federal and State Guidelines and protecting yourself, your families, and love ones.

There are many caring Ruritan members, who like an eagle, are rising to the challenge in support of their community. I would love to hear from you about any activity you are providing to support those working on the frontlines. Please share, in a short summary, the activity or support being provided by members or clubs in your district. I want to share your story with others in Ruritan.

In closing, please remember the precious Ruritans we have lost this year. May they rest with God in peace.
Psalm 34:18 - The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.
Safe wishes to each of you and your families.

Working Together,
Linward Hedgspeth

You are my hero. If you are a Ruritan member and you are working through your club to support the needs in your community, you are my hero. You always have been. During the coronavirus crisis I have seen example after example of how our clubs are rising to the challenge. I am impressed, but not surprised. I have been watching you for over 40 years. You always step up. This crisis. The last crisis. The next crisis. It's what we do. It's who we are.

This magazine is full of examples of your generosity, your care and your love and commitment to the people you serve. It is full of hope.

We have seen clubs host blood drives, support police departments, rescue squads, fire departments and every type of first responder.

We know that you are supporting nurses who risk their life and health every day to make sure that when you and I are sick, we are cared for. You didn't start now, but you ramped up donations to feeding programs that care for people who don't have enough to eat during normal circumstances, during this time that is anything but normal.

You've taken time to care about the environment, build handicap ramps, support our veterans, make and distribute face masks, and give scholarships to young people who have been denied the privilege of graduating together with their classmates. Students who may not get to physically enter a college classroom in the fall.

You've donated generously to St. Jude in support of children who are in the fight for their lives, and supported First Lady Anne at the same time.

You are finding ways to make sure that those who are confined to nursing homes feel loved and cared for. Several clubs have participated in parades at nursing homes. I recently participated in such an event and it was heartwarming and heartbreaking at the same time.

You are finding creative ways to meet without meeting using zoom, teams, phones and many other methods. You meet because you want to continue to find ways to serve in an environment that doesn't lend itself to getting out into the community with the people that you serve.

I am so proud of you. I am so proud of us. You quietly continue, no matter what our circumstances, to do the best and most you can to help people who need us. Keep doing what you do.

YOU ARE MY HERO!

2021 National Convention Mini Schedule

Make Plans to Attend!

Have you made your plans to attend the 2021 Ruritan National Convention? The hotel and convention center representatives are looking forward to our "return" to Covington, their city with many great venues. "Return" because some of them and some of you still remember the great time and convention we had there in 2013. John Hancock, 2004 Ruritan National President, was convention chair and he said, "If you like small towns, you'll love Covington but if big city life is more to your liking, then you can either walk or take the trolley across the Ohio River to Cincinnati for big city life." This area has something for everyone! You will remember if you were in Covington in 2013, there were a series of tours available for our members. Because of the uncertainty at this time caused by COVID-19, tour plans are tentative. There will still be plenty of great activities to do at local sites and restaurants that individuals and small groups can access via the shuttle/trolley.

Covington and the Northern Kentucky (NKY) Convention Center, is situated on the banks of the Ohio River with two great hotels - the Embassy Suites Cincinnati River Center and the Cincinnati Marriott River Center, which is connected to the NKY Convention Center by a covered walkway. The Embassy has already been renovated since our 2013 National Convention, and the Marriott is still in the renovation process and will be completed before our January 2021 visit. The cost of rooms at these two hotels has increased by only $9 since our 2013 visit. The rate at each hotel is $109 for either a king or two-queen room. The Marriott will provide our members with a $5 discount for the breakfast buffet. Additionally, both hotels are offering free self parking and free internet services. Information about these details will be provided via the Ruritan Magazine. Based upon hotel availability, these room rates will be offered three days prior to and three days after our event. This will allow Ruritans the opportunity to come early or stay late to enjoy the NKY area. Both hotels will offer complimentary housing reservation booking through an internet system, enabled by Lanyon Passkey. Ruritan office staff members have worked with the NKY Convention Center representatives and have enabled this system at <https://book.passkey.com/e/50083787> on the Ruritan website, ruritan.org. Just go to ruritan.org and click on the picture of the NKY Convention Center.

Set Recurring Option for Club Board Meeting

The Ruritan Member Management System (MMS) continues to provide upgrades and enhancements that allow Ruritans an increased flexibility in managing their club and personal data.

Of special interest to club secretaries is the latest enhancement: the date and day of the regular club board meetings can be set as a recurring event in the MMS.

Going to your club's home page you should see the club name underlined in the upper left corner. (NOTE: Underlined text on a web page is usually a hyperlink that will take you to additional information.)

If you click on the underlined club name it will take you to a "back page" of additional information about your club. You can find addresses for meeting place, EIN, charter year, club website* and so on. Also on that page are two pull-down menus to set the club meeting day and now the club board meeting day as well. If you make any changes to this page – please always click the "update" box found at the lower left of the page. Once the board meeting date is set, it will also show up on the district directory.

If you enter your club website on this page it will automatically populate a list on the Ruritan.org website that is available to the public.*

The bottom screenshot shows the club's detailed information page. It includes fields for Address, City, State, Charter Number, Charter Year, Meeting Night, and Board Meeting Night. Red arrows point to the 'Meeting Night' and 'Board Meeting Night' dropdown menus, which are currently set to '3rd Monday' and '1st Monday' respectively. At the bottom left, there is an 'update' button.

The bottom screenshot also shows a 'PLEASE PRINT THIS REPORT' section with a table of club information:

Members in Multiple Clubs Can Choose Primary Club

If you have a membership in more than one Ruritan club the MMS will allow you to designate which is your primary club. This can be done by any club or district officer.

That means if you register for a district or national convention the system will know from which club you would be considered a delegate. That is helpful for online voting as well as name badge printing.

Just ask a club officer to designate one of your clubs as primary - in the upper right corner of your member information page in the MMS.

Of course if you are an associate in one club and a full member in the other – remember that associate members can't serve as club delegates.

The screenshot shows the 'MEMBER 97240' information page. The member's name is 'Timbrook'. The page has tabs for various sections: CLUB, TRAINING, FUND, ATTENDANCE, EVENTS, ROLES, COMMENTS, LOG, and PROJECTS. The 'CLUB' tab is selected, showing a table with columns for Status, Date, Involvement Level, Ruritan Forever, and Primary Club. Two rows are shown: one for 'ACTIVE 06/30/2016' and another for 'ACTIVE 07/26/2013'. Both rows have a dropdown menu for 'Primary Club' with the option 'NO SET TO PRIMARY' selected. Red arrows point to the 'Primary Club' dropdown menu and the 'NO SET TO PRIMARY' option. A blue arrow points to the 'Primary Club' dropdown menu. The 'Ruritan Forever' dropdown menu is also visible, with 'Y' selected.

If you have any questions about using the Member Management System (MMS), please don't hesitate to reach out to Ruritan staff toll free at 877-767-8727 or email us at membership@ruritan.org or service@ruritan.org.

Ruritan National Board of Directors Bylaws Committee Declaration of Intent

The Bylaws Committee of the Ruritan National Board of Directors is working on a new set of National Bylaws that will prepare the organization for the future. Our Bylaws started with a Constitution and Bylaws that evolved into Bylaws that have served us well for over 90 years, but now is the time to prepare for the next 100 years. The primary focus is to have Bylaws that will allow the Board and the organization to adapt to ever changing needs of our members, clubs, communities and districts. In 2007, our Constitution and Bylaws combined when the State of Virginia required Non-Profits to have Bylaws only.

The purpose of this Bylaws rewrite is to bring our National Bylaws in line with what our clubs and members want to do and are currently doing to address ever changing needs in our communities. This will give us the opportunity to provide a more open platform for our members to be engaged in preparing for the future direction of Ruritan.

The revised Bylaws will keep our traditions in place, but embrace flexibility for the future. This is essential for Ruritan to do if it is going to continue providing services to our communities of the future. This approach will allow us to remove all of the administrative, operational items currently in our Bylaws and put them into the District and Club Bylaws where they belong, allowing the Board to react quickly to the needs of the members and clubs. The National Bylaws should focus on the purpose and legal requirements of the organization instead of policies which provide day to day guidance. Ruritan currently faces a lot of challenges in our communities, and our club's needs sometimes conflict with our current Bylaws. This change will eliminate the conflict and allow us to provide more flexibility and adaptability for our members and clubs in order to meet the ever changing requirements of our communities in which we serve.

The new Bylaws will allow us to run things as we currently do but allow the organization to restructure as necessary for the benefit of Ruritan.

The Bylaws Committee has been listening and absorbing the input from our members and now the Committee is taking action to respond to your needs. As we move down the road to the future, we need to be prepared for the next 100 years of Fellowship, Goodwill, and Community Service.

As always, the Ruritan National Bylaws Committee is here to serve you and your club and thank you for what you do in your community. Let's embrace our traditions while envisioning our future.

Yours in Ruritan Service,

Message From 2020 Foundation President Brent Wheeler

Build Your Dollar Deadline Extended

In the early 1920s my grandparents packed their belongings and moved from their family farm back to Texas. It didn't make much sense to me why they would drop everything and head that far away. I never understood their moving nor the plague of 1918 but with the pandemic of 2020 it makes perfect sense. In a time of crisis, you want to be with those you care about the most.

While studying at Auburn I was introduced to the writings of Justice Thurgood Marshall. To this day I remember the following, "The measure of a country's greatness is in its ability to retain compassion in time of crisis." Like my grandparent's moving this didn't truly resonate with me until now. Just as my grandparent's family showed compassion to them, this 'ability' has been exemplified as our Ruritan clubs have worked to help our Ruritan families and communities while practicing social distancing.

Your Foundation has also continued to work for you. We have extended the due date for your BY$ until July 30th. We have also provided you with necessary forms on the Ruritan National website and the blast has covered in detail all you need to know about deadlines and filings. Rest assured the BY$ program is in good standing and will be there for you now and in the future. Clubs may also roll over, for a second time this year only, their $300.
